"THE SKYLARK" ✓

One reel Star Comedy ✓

Convict No. 13 was busy in the prison yard when his pal called dressed as a young woman in mourning. He whispered through the bars that No. 13 was to beat it when he saw the star fall.

The visitor handed the warden a letter signed by the governor and which stated that the prisoner had been granted a pardon. While the warden was reading the letter the prisoner's pal pulled out a blackjack and knocked the keeper down.

With several guards in pursuit the convict ran into a store where he changed clothes but was recognized by the prison guards who met him outside. He then raced to an aviation field where he climbed aboard one of the planes just starting to "hop off". The guards followed in another plane and attempted to force the first plane to descend. While flying low over the prison buildings Convict 13 lost his hold on the wing of the plane and fell into the prison yard right in front of two of the guards who dragged him back to his cell.
